- Please note you pay a weekly rental fee and you do not own the land - you own the relocatable home

This very modern and trendy unit is only six years of age and is situated at the Parklane Village at Epsom, only ten minutes to Bendigo and is the perfect place for retirement with many facilities available to residents. It is certainly one of the nicest units you will find in the complex and is in excellent condition. Definitely cheaper living than the open rental market in Bendigo. You may claim rental assistance also where eligible. Occupants need to be over 55 to reside in the complex. The complex is an outstanding facility to live at and is pet friendly.

The home is constructed with timber framework and foam backed Vinyl clad external walls with colorbond roof, ceilings are insulated. Downlights are fitted throughout the home and the kitchen has a solar tube making the home light and bright.
