- Set on a compact allotment in a premier location within easy distance of schools, parks, public transport and shopping centres. Double garage which is easily accessed at the rear of the home and there is access to the home from the garage
- Close to all amenities and only 3km to the Bendigo CBD
- The home is only two years old and is still under builder warranty - buying an established home is more cost effective than building in today's market. For retirees this home represents a fabulous opportunity as you own the home and land and of course there is no need to pay excessive weekly fees and exit fees as you do now at retirement villages. Being in control of your own destiny is great comfort for all family members
