This lovely home in a very good location has been freshly painted by a professional painter and has just had new floor coverings installed, namely carpets and vinyl plank flooring. Investors are all over property in Bendigo at the moment buying up older weatherboard homes requiring lots of work, making this home comparatively very good buying. The home is ready for living or leasing and presents a fabulous opportunity for those wanting to enter the property market. The surrounding area has a lovely rural outlook and walking tracks in the Whipstick forest area nearby. Certainly a very affordable home in the current Bendigo market.
